

AyA Kitchens and Baths is a manufacturer of high quality, frameless cabinetry. By combining old world craftsmanship and attention to detail with high tech manufacturing processes we are able to offer innovative, quality cabinetry at competitive, manufacturer direct prices. AyA's in house design professional's work with clients ranging from individual home owners to multi-national builders to create cabinetry solutions tailored to specific tastes and needs.

Job Title: Production Manager – Afternoon Shift

Responsibilities include:

- Oversee daily activities of approximately 50 hourly employees in various departments (Assembly, Panel Processing, Finishing)
- Ensure safe working environment for all employees and maintaining safe working practices
- Work with other managers and Senior staff to establish and manage production workload/schedule while taking resources and processes into account
- Achieve production goals while maintaining quality standards
- Suggests corrective actions to improve quality and productivity
- Provide training, motivation and guidance to employees
- Responsible to ensure plant/offices are locked up at shift end
- Respond to calls from security company
- Conduct regular performance reviews
- Other duties as assigned

Experience/Education:

- Minimum 5 years management experience preferably in cabinet or furniture manufacturing
- Hands on experience in running woodworking machinery an asset
- Working knowledge of Health & Safety standards
- Must possess strong leadership and interpersonal skills
- Excellent communication, time management , problem solving and critical thinking skills
- Familiar with continuous improvement systems an assets
- Ability to promote team building and collaboration
- Able to multi task and adapt to new environments
- Working knowledge of Microsoft MS

Please email resumes to hr@ayakitchens.com or fax to 905-848-4866